Term 4, Week 2, 24th October 2018

Dear Families,

Healthy Canteen – A first for Bathurst!

Congratulations to Robyn Puckeridge our Canteen Manager who has received accreditation in becoming the first certified Healthy School Canteen in Bathurst. This process was quite in depth and included a full menu check. We are now able to officially brand ourselves with this embedded image. Well done Robyn.

Kindergarten 2019 Transition

27 smiling faces will join us tomorrow for the commencement of this year's Kinder transition. As you know this sets up the students very well for the start of their formal schooling the following year.

Run4Fun Colour Explosion – 4th November

Make sure you have kept Sunday 4th November free for what promises to be a great day of fun for all involved. Information has been distributed to all families and sponsorship is open. Remember to stay after the event for a sausage sandwich too!

Inter-School Sport Stage 3

Mrs Rayner has been busily coordinating our Year 5 and 6 students involvement in Inter-School sport for 2018. This 3 week program sees all Stage 3 students from Public Schools in Bathurst come together across a range of sports. This is another wonderful way for students to meet and establish new friendships prior to high school.

Scripture and Ethics

Both Scripture and Ethics commenced today for Term 4. Due to staffing changes with our Ethics volunteers we will have Ethics across Stages 1 and 3 this term.

Keeping on Track—Winner

Our 'Keeping on Track' winner for this week was Bailey Chatfield. Bailey received a $5 canteen voucher as his prize.

Yours sincerely,

Greg Cross
Principal
