Term 4, Week 5, 14th November 2018

Dear Families,

Remembrance Day

Our School Leaders, younger students and Mrs Connell led a wonderful Remembrance Day ceremony last Friday. All students contributed to our ceremony by colouring a poppy which was used as a visual display on the day.

Stage 3 Visit to Kelso High Campus

Today our Stage 3 students attended Kelso High Campus to participate in a technology session with Kelso High staff. They also watched Kelso High students perform a musical titled 'The Butler Did It Singing'. All students had a great day.

2019 Student Leader - Candidates

Our entire student population were told of the 2019 Student Leader candidates this week. These candidates are now able to display an election poster to aid them in their lobbying for a leadership position next year. In the coming weeks all candidates will deliver an election speech to the school population. Leaders will be announced prior to the end of the year and School Captains will be announced on Presentation Day.

Keeping on Track - Winner

Our 'Keeping on Track' winner for this week was Alex Coetsee. Alex received a $5 canteen voucher as his prize.
